JAPS PLAN ALLIANCE WITH CHINA

Diplomats at Tientsin Hear Preliminaries Completed

FACTIONS UNITED

Program Said to Include Early Return of Seized Province—Peaceful Ovver Yap—Buying Port Cities

Tien-Tsin, China, May 17.—Information in high diplomatic quarters is that an air-tight amalgamation of the yellow races has been put under way as the result of conferences being held in this city and Tokio. Here the three great "war lords" of China have been meeting, while in Tokio the chiefs of the army, the Government and elder statesmen have been called together to consider the whole situation in the Far East.

Japan, it is understood, has given up hope of driving a wedge between th United States and Great Britain and intends to make a close arrangement with China. The program, as it is understood in high diplomatic quarters, involves these items:

The immediate and unconditional return to China of the province of Shantung.

Reunification of the north and south governments of China, which have long been in opposition.

Reorganization of the finances of China, including the cancellation of loans and the application of the Boxer indemnity paid to Japan for educational purposes for Chinese, following the example set by America.

Rehabilitation of the Chinese navy and co-operation against the Russian reactionary forces now operating in Mongolia.

The three Chinese war lords—Gen Chang Tsao-Lin, Governor of Manchuria; General Lsao-Kun, Inspector General of the Province of Chili (which contains Peking), and Gen. Wang Chan Yuen, Military Governor of Hupeh, have practically taken control of the Government of China, after a meeting here in which they are understood to have made terms with the Japanese for close affiliation against the Western Powers. They have insisted that they should replace the Ministers of Finance, Interior, Communication and War with men who follow their policy, and it is understood they have gained their point. President Huo Shi-Chang threatened to resign, but finally gave way.

Tokio conference of diplomatic and consular representatives in China and Siberia with the military and other officials is believed to be due to the fear that hostilities are imminent over Yap, and it is felt that a quick friendship must be made with China.

Yukichi Obata, the Japanese Minister to Peking, who went through Tientsin on his way to the Tokio Council, disparaged the banking consortium whereby it was planned to put the finances of China in good condition by the co-operation of Great Britain, France, the United States and Japan. Mr. Obata said, however, that China must have financial assistance from outside sources.

Japan, however, is taking precautions to be in the most favorable position in case of the surrender of Shantung. The Japanese garrison commander at the vital port of Tsing Tao is demanding that the Chinese shall pay off the mortgages which the Germans took on desirable property before the war. By means of foreclosure on those who cannot pay the Japanese will thus acquire favor sites. They are also buying other sites in the port and also at Tsinan-Fu, to the injunction of the Shantung Railroad with the main line from Peking south.

STAGE IS SET FOR DOLLAR DAY

Fair Weather Promised For Tomorrow's Big Event

TEMPTING BARGAINS

Read Every Ad and Clip Coupons Where You Find Them in Order to Get Benefit of Sale.

With fair weather promised for tomorrow, all is in readiness for Dollar Day.

Final preparations for the big event were made by all of the participating merchants today and every thing points to one of the most successful Dollar Days ever given in the city.

The bargains offered by the merchants as a trade stimulus are almost beyond comprehension. Probably there is no city in the United States today where such genuine bargains are being offered as those advertised in today's issue. In the event you don't want any of the goods offered, it will pay you to buy tomorrow for eventually you will have to procure some of the articles that are advertised and probably you will pay at least fifty per cent more than you will tomorrow Dollar Day.

Readers shoud look over every advertisement carefully and note the varied assortment of bargains being offered.

At some of the stores special coupons are required of the purchaser from the Gazette and unless you bring along the coupon you will be unable to obtain the benefit of some of these rare bargains. Therefore, clip all coupons that you see in order to make sure you will get the goods.

Dollar Day in this city is now an established institution. From its very inception it has proved a potent factor in the merchandising life of Alexandria and this day above all others has come to be looked upon as the greatest of all buying days in the city.

One reason for pronounced success is that the merchants participating live strictly up to their agreement. There is no sham and the goods of all of those participating are just as advertised. Shoppers realize this and for this reason turn out en masse for the bargains.

Participating merchants in DOLLAR DAY tomorrow following whose ads will be found in The Gazette follow:

PREMIER WILLING TO MEET DE VALERA

Irish Leader Awaits Public Statement By Lloyd George

FOUR ARE AMBUSHED

Three Government Officer and Women Killed in Galway Ambush—Cork Jail Attacked

Dublin, May 17.—Premier Lloyd George, says the Freeman's Journal today, has offered to meet Eamonn de Valera, or other Irish leaders, without conditions, Mr. de Valera, adds the newspaper, replied that if the Premier made such a statement public he (de Valera) would give a public reply.

Expressions of willingness of the British Government leaders to meet Irish Republican representatives have hitherto usually been coupled with conditions, notably as to the cessation of hostilities in Ireland and with regard to the personality of the delegates, persons under the British Government ban being barred.

Four persons, one of them a woman, were killed in County Galway last night, by men lying in ambush at Dallyturn, a short distance from Gort.

Those killed were District Inspector Blake and Mrs. Blake, Captain Cornwallis, son of Colonel Flennes Stanley Cornwallis, in whose automobile the party was riding, and Lieutenant McCreery. The officers were attached to the Seventeenth Lancers. A Mrs. Gregory, the only other person in the car, was not injured.

The party had been spending Sunday afternoon playing tennis at the residence of Magistrate Bagot, of Dallyturn House, and were returning to their homes at Gort. Reaching the end of the avenue leading from Dallyturn House, and finding the gate closed, Captain Cornwallis got out to open the gate. Shots immediately were fired from the adjacent shrubbery, and Cornwallis fell dead.

Armed masked men, said to have numbered about forty, then surrounded the car and ordered the women to leave. Mrs. Blake refused to do so, saying that she would die by the side of her husband. Mrs Gregory was led away.

Shortly afterwards the four bodies were found lying near the gate.

After the shooting a number of men went to Dallyturn House and handed in a notice threatening to burn the house if there were any reprisals. Military and police reinforcements sent to the scene were fired upon, and one constable was seriously wounded.

Lieutenant McCreery was only 19 years old. Mrs. Gregory is a daughter in law of Lady Augusta Gregory, an Irish playwright.

Attacks on the police and military occurred in several places last night and today.

A constable was killed and a sergeant and another constable were wounded as they were leaving a church in Dansha County Tipperary, ast night.

The body of an unknown man was found near the Killiney golf links in Dublin Co., with five bullet wounds in the head. A bomb was thrown at a military lorry in crowded Freedrick street, this city, today. In the shooting which followed four civilians were wounded.

Cork, May 17.——An attack was made on the Cork prison at midnight last night. It took the form of attempts to snipe the guard, the effort lasing for more than an hour. The guard replied with machine gun fire and sent up Verey lights which brought a strong military force from the barracks and the attacking party was dispersed.

This was the third attack on the jail within two months.

Daniel O'Brien, of Knockandbane Liscarrol, County Cork was tried by drum-head court-martial Saturday and executed in the Cork detention barracks at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

O'Brien died bravely, maintaining the same attitude that he displayed at his trial, when in answering the reques to plead, he replied: "I have no defense, "I was caught as a soldier and you can try me."

Dollar Day Tomorrow.

Tomorrow the merchants of the city will observe Dollar Day. Those participating have prepared a great array of bargains for the buying public and it is believed that their efforts will be rewarded with a general outpouring of shoppers. The merchants in this manner and the shoppers become acquainted and it is helpful to all concerned. Some of our merchants in previous Dollar Day Sales have met new customers and made permanent ones of them. It is really a good business day not only for the merchant but for the shoppers as well and the merchants are going to demonstrate to the buyers that they can puchase cheaper in Alexandria than in any other city in the country. The Gazette extends its best wishes for a most successful Dollar Day.

The West Virginia Troubles.

Striking, lockouts, intimidating, shooting and all sorts of fiendish revelries by day and night have again raised their ugly heads in and around certain portions of the West Virginia coal fields. This time the Federal Government seems more than likely to become involved in this capital-labor guerilla warfare. The black sore spot on the borderland of West Virginia and Kentucky bids fair to assume a national aspect.

Not all the camouflage that the strike leaders nor the mine operators can spread will dissipate the growing notion in the public minds that the real trouble in W. Virginia is a straight out fight between the open and the closed shop. Both sides deny it but in the very words of their denials confirm it. The unionized miners strike; they lose not only their jobs but their homes which are owned by the operators and from which they have been summarily ejected. Others take their places and the homeless strikers shoot up the towns and villages occupied by their strike-breaking successors. It's a sorry mess, whatever you think of the rights and wongs of it.

And the worst of it all is that even after Federal troops are sent in there to do more shooting and restore order, at great expense to the Government, nothing will be decided. Next year the strikebreakers of today will themselves be the strikers of tomorrow. Then there will be more shooting, more martial law, more government expense and the same old cycle all over again.

Martial law never settle anything permanently. One ounce of preventive legislation of the right kind would be worth all the shooting in the world.

One of Democracy's Own.

Of all the names that stand out for sheer pluck, courage and heroism in that awful holocaust we call the World War, none exceed in lustre that of the little newsboy of Brookline, Massachusetts who in July, 1917, left off taking pennies for his wares and at the tender age of fifteen sailed across the seas to duty, danger and death. When little "Scotty" whose real name was Albert Edward Scott, stood at Epieds, France, with the 101st Infantry, defending a pass singlehanded until he had slain thirty one Germans and dropped dead in his unretreating tracks, he sent a thrill of loving pride and admiration through the whole heart of America.

And America has not forgotten what "Scotty" did there that day. The newsboys of Brookline have banded together, pooled their pennies and this summer will set up a bronze tablet to commemorate their little Spartan comrade who made a Thermopylae all his own. The President of the United States in responding to an invitation to take part in the dedication of the tablet has said hat he would be gratified to do so, if he should find it possible.

We hope President Harding will be able to go to Brookline and represent the whole United States of America in honoring "Scotty." So many great monuments are put up to generals and admirals and the mighty leaders of war, and there are always so many of high degree to preside at their dedication, that it would be a graceful tribute to the vast democracy of the rank and file who bear the burden and heat of the fighting should the nation's Chief Executive travel all the way to Boston to place the tribute of a people's unforgetting love upon the memory of a newsboy here.

Friendship Company Admits 24 New Members—Now 100 on Roster

Twenty-four new members, many of them former firemen, last night were admitted to membership in the Friendship Veterans' Fire Association. The meeting was well attended.

It is said that this brings the total membership of this organization up to about 100.

Arrangements are being made for general improvements to the company's house by the veterans. Electric lights will be installed and a new door put up and other improvements added.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our mother, MRS. MESSENA WELLS, who departed this life one year ago today, May 17th, 1920.

Weep not that her toils are over,
Weep not that her race is run,
God grant we may rest as calmly,
When our work, like hers, is done
Til then we yield with gladness.
Our mother to Him to keep,
And rejoice in the sweet assurance,
"He giveth His loved ones sleep."

ROSEMONT DEL RAY
BRADDOCK MT. IDA.
ST. ELMO

The "Kitchen Cabnet Band" gave their concert to a delighted and appreciated audience; a full house with standing room only, last Friday night in Mt. Vernon Avenue school house, Del Ray. The "band consisted of 22 matrons, members of Hargrove Class of Trinity M. E. Church Sunday School, Washington, whose husbands were also present in the audience. This "band must be seen and heard to be appreciated, the ladies gave a wholesome, jolly evening's entertainment of music and song including solos, duets and choruses, all of which were good and "snappy," and much merriment was provided by the fake instruments. The duet, "Where Has My Little Dog Gone?" was sung to the "music" of a meat grinder with a toy dog on the top and links of sausage coming out as the handle was turned in time to the real music of the piano. At the conclusion of each solo, duet, etc, quaint and ingenious "bouquets" of vegetables carved to represent flowers were present to singer or musician. The music furnished by Felters orchestra before and after the concert and during intermissions, was especially fine and greatly enjoyed by all.

Mr. Howard Rhea, of Indian Head, Md., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. E. D. File, in Del Ray.

Miss Marion Rector from the Seminary, was the week end guest of her aunt, Mrs. R. T. Hardin, in Del Ray.

Circle No. 1, of the Del Ray M. E. Ladies' Aid served a 'luncheon" today at the highway bridge of Potomac yard. Potato salad, sandiches, pie and coffe for 25 cents. The demand was great and they soon sold out.

Attendance at both services of Del Ray M. E. Church was unusually large and the congregation listened attentively to the sermons of Rev. J. Raymond Wood, pastor. The morning sermon was on "Burden Bearing," from the text found in Gal. 6:2; while the evening sermon was an exposiiton on, "What it Means to be a Christian" from Acts 11:26.

Mrs. R. T. Hardin and Mrs. E. D. File and young son, Earnest, of Del Ray, spent Sunday in Fredericksburg, visiting the Normal School.

Winifred Glascock, of Braddock, was a week end guest of her sister, Miss Meta Glascock, at Fredricksburg visiting the Normal School.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Sullivan in St. Elmo, feel that Friday, the 13th, is their lucky day since the arrival of their little son, last Friday.

Mrs. Myrtle H. Ellett and Master Jack Pennypacker, who were guests of Mrs. Kate Pennypacker, in St. Elmo, last week, have returned to their home in Richmond, Va.

Miss Annie P. Peugh, from Hamilton, Va., as the week end guest of Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Yates, in Del Ray.

Mr. W. M. King, of George Washington Park, is making an extended business trip through the middle west.

The regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting at Del Ray M. E. Church will be conducted by the presiding elder, Dr. H. P. Hammill, and following the service he will hold the first quarterly conference of this church.

Mrs. M. Ellen Haynes and grand daughter, little June Varney, left their home in St. Elmo Sunday morning to spend several months with her son and family, Mr. Robert Haynes, in Northumberland, Pa. She was accompanied as far as Harrisburgh, Pa., by her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Varney, also Mayor Varney, of St. Elmo.

The "Sock Social" of the Ladies Aid of Del Ray Baptist Church, last Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. George R. McCauley, was very well attended, and quite a nice sum was realized from the "socks," also a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all present, with games and music both vocal and instrumental, especially the singing by Miss Edna McCauley, and the piano playing of Miss Milcey Zachary. After the delightful refreshments the guests departed, well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

There was one "shower" Saturday night that the weather man knew nothing about. It was a very pretty "shower" which was given to Miss Margaret Shuster, of St. Elmo, by several of her friends who gathered for the occasion in the home of Miss Maida Foster, in Washington, D. C., the hostesses being Miss Edith Garrett, of St. Elmo, and Mr. E. G. Rowzie and Miss Maida Foster, of Washington. The attractive little decorations carried out a color scheme of pink and white. The centerpiece was a "kewpie" bride from whose tiny bouquet extended pink and white ribbons to the place cards which were cupids holding announcements of Miss Shuster's wedding in June. Others present were Mrs. J. D. Shuster mother of the guest of honor, and Miss Edwina Foster, sister of one of the hostesse, also Misses Marion Schreiner, Milcey Zachary, Naomi Kidwell, Lena Glascock, Mrs. Leon Edington and Mrs. James Quinn, all of Del Ray, Mrs. Clarence S. Haley, of St. Elmo, and Mrs. Ingram and Mrs. Trotter, of Washington, D. C.

While playing practice ball last Tuesday, Ralph Cobean, of St. Elmo, was injured in the left eye by a pitched ball and the nerves of the eye temporarily paralyzed. He is slowly regaining his sight and it is hoped the accident may not prove serious.

The body of Garland Dabney son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dabney, of Arlington county, will be interred in Arlington cemetery tomorrow, Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The services will be conducted by an army chaplain.

The George Mason High School baseball nine will play Manassas High School team on the diamond of Mt. Vernon Avenue School, Del Ray, tomorrow, Wednesday, at 3:45 p. m. They also have a game scheduled with the team from Leesburg, Va., on the same field for Thursday afternoon. Game will be called promptly at 3:45.

The Senior Class of George Mason High School will give a class party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Saffell, 613 North Washington street, Alexandria, on Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Yesterday afternoon the Mt. Vernon Avenue school baseball team played Columbia Pike on the home school diamond. The Mt. Vernon School team has improved wonderfully in the last two games and showed good form yesterday. Kremer made the first home run for the local team, and the game closed with the score 9 to 8 in favor of Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. Nancy Wescott, of Syracuse, N. Y., who declares Tanlac is the greatest medicine on earth. Says it built her up to where she is just brimful of new life and energy.

"I just think Tanlac is the greatest medicine on earth and I can never praise it enough for what it's done for me.

"For two years I was in a badly rundown condition. I had no appetite, and after every meal I would be in awful distress from indigestion and bloating. My nerves were on edge, and I could never get a good night's slep. I felt tired and worn out all the time, was losing weight, and many times I was so weak I couldn't look after my housework. I just felt miserable.

"Tanlac helped one of my friends so much that I began taking it and it has certainly built me up into splendid health. My appetite is so big I can hardly get enough to eat now, and I am never troubled a particle with bloating or indigestion. My nerves are as steady as clockwork, and I sleep like a child at night. I have recovered my strength and am just brimful of new life and energy. In fact, I feel better than I have in years. My gratitude towards Tanlac is unbounded."

The above statement was recently made by Mrs. Nancy Westcott, 121 Market St., Syracuse, N. Y.

FOR ROAD BUILDING

More Than Two Million Dollars Daily Could Be Spent on Highways of Country

Washington, D. C., May 17.—Approximately $2,000,000 is available every working day during the present year for expenditure upon highways of the United States, according to a statement today by Professor C. J. Tilden, director of the Highway and Highway Transport Education Committee.

The actual sum available from state and county bond issues and Federal aid for the year is $600,000,000 a sum fifty per cent greater than the total cost of the Panama Canal according to figures obtained from the Bureau of Public Roads.

This point was made by Professor Tilden in stressing the need for more courses in highway construction and economics in colleges and universities To spend this amount wisely, he said, would require the services of more tahn 10,000 trained highway engineers. At this time, universities are graduating only about 1 000 civil engineers annually, of whom only a small percentage turn to highway construction. The supply is far short of the demand, according to Professor Tilden.

Through the agency of the committee of which he is director, Professor Tilden is endeavoring to persuade institutions of higher learning to include courses in highway economics in their regular curriculums. Professor Tilden occupies the chair of engineering mechanics at Yale University, but is on leave as director of the committee.

Another and more popular campaign is being undertaken by the committee by means of a national essay contest among high school pupils on the subject "Good Roads and Highway Transport." Several hundred letters of inquiry are received daily from all sections of the country Even the island possesions and the territories are seeking information on the contet.

News of the contest has been conveyed to pupils by their teachers and school superintendents in response to an announcement sent out by Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, who is chairman of the highway transport committee Essays must be not more than 500 words in length and must be in the honds of local committees not later than June 15, when the contest closes Virtually all state superintendents are naming state committees to award state honors and prizes, and are announcing the contest to their pupils. Commissioner Claxton will name the national committee which will award the main prize.

As a means of encouraging pupils to write essaps, the committee requested one of its members, H S. Firestone, Akron, Ohio, to offer a national prize. Mr. Firestone put up a four years university scholarship, with a value of not less than $4.000 as the award for the best essay written on this subject.

A similar contest held last year resulted in approximately 200,000 essays being written. The Firestone scholarship was awarded Miss Katharine F. Butterfield, 176 year old high chool girl of Weiser, Idaho.

THE SHOSHONE DAM

Among the great irrigation dams erected under the supervision of the reclamation service of the Department of the Interior, the Shoshone has a distinct indivvivduality. It is located nine miles west of Cody, Wyoming, on the road to Yellowstone park.

If you can conceive of a triangular shaped wedge of concrete 328 feet high, 200 feet wide at the top, 108 feet thick at the base, tapering to 10 feet at the crest, placed between two mounains so as to close the canyon of a river, you can gain some idea of this mastonic structure.

Now, imagine a lake of stored up water, 10 miles long, with a maximum width of four miles and a maximum depth of 233 feet behind this dam; then, in front of it a spill way bearing a strong resemblance to a section of Niagara falls, and stretching away in the distance hundreds of thousands of acres of land covered with an abundance of crops, peopled with happy inhabitants and here and there is a bustling village There you have a picture of one of Uncle Sam's great irrigation projects.

Remember that before the water was brought to this thirsting land, sage brush and prairie dogs were among the principal crops, then—presto "The desert blossomed as the rose," and you'll understand why your government expended $1,354,000 on the dam alone.

Making It Safe to Build

Building As An Investment
(By Noble Foster Hoggson)

There are few individuals who build today purely from the instinct or love for creating. The final test of any building in this age is its utility. Every structure must be regarded as an investment and as such requires careful preliminary study.

There are as many gauges of the utility of a structure as there are types of building. In a commercial structure the gauge is its earning capacity; in a private residence success is largely measured by the degree of comfort and convenience accorded its occupants; in a bank building or home for a financial institution the return may be based on an increased good will or prestige, together with an ability through efficient arrangement to better serve the public. In whatever form the return, the building represents an investment of capital for profit—and there can be no profit unless it meets the requirements imposed by the investment.

The inittial decision to improve a piece of property must be made by the owner and while structural pitfalls may be avoided by the choice of a tried and experienced building organization, the economic responsibility must necessarily rest with the owner. This economic phase must be studied and settled before the tructural problem is approached.

So far as the actual work of building is concerned there now is a standard procedure for the solution of the construction problem. Not a brick is laid for the new building until the architectural design has been completed, the plans approved depth of excavation decided, kinds of materials chosen and most important of all—the cost determined.

There is no corresponding standard practice for the appraoch of the preliminary economic problem. Knowing his needs, the owner should consider every type of building which might meet his requirements and under every type investigate and eigh every factor which might affect the future utility of the structure he proposes to erect.

In considering the erection of a commercial building the owner should satisfy himself as to the probable demand for its use, the permanence of the demand, competition of present and futurd buildings of the same class and the stability of the zone, before he decides the type of structure. He should also bear in mind that the commercial value and the cost of construction are not necessarily the same; for a building that is well planned, well built, of attractive appearance, and favorably located often acquires a capital value greatly in excess of its cost of construction.

A Proclamation by the Governor of Virginia:

WHEREAS, The city of Fredericksburg and nearby counties have been the birthplace of many of Virginia's most illustrious citizens—Washington Madison, Monroe, Lee—and is a center of great historic interest, where abouts thousands of the flower of Southern manhood made the supreme sacrifice in a cause dear to every Virginia's heart; and

WHEREAS, The city of Fredericksburg and its citizens cordially invite their fellow citizens of Virginia, and all others who are interested, to attend and participate in the celebration of its Two Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary, now

THEREFORE, I, Westmoreland Davis, Governor of Virginia, do here by commend the purpose of the citizens of the City of Fredericksburg to celebrate its Two Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary, and join with them in inviting the people of Virginia, and all others who may be interested, to attend the celebration at Fredericksburg on Wednesday, May 25, 1921.

HAVING ALL STREETS PAVED WITH MACADAM

Frederick, Md., May 17—Walkersville, a town of nearly 2,000 inhabitants, 6 miles northeast of Frederick, principal retired farmers' home, has plowed up its streets and is putting down a complete network of macadam roadways. The work will be completed by midsummer and it will distinguish Walkersville as one of the most modern towns in Maryland.

In order to meet the expenses of this construction work the burgees and commissioners have offered for sale a $20000 issue of serial bonds, authorized by the last session of the Maryland legislature.

TOBACCO'S FOES LOSING GROUND

New York, May 17.—Statutory prohibition of the use of tobacco by adults is still a long way off if the editors of the country truly interpret public sentiment in their communities. This statement is based on the results of a questionnaire conducted by Edward A. Moree of this city for the Tobacco Merchants Association of the United States. The questionnaire was sent to nearly 13,000 editors. Replies were received from nearly 63 per cent representing a total circulation of 22,000,000.

Of the 7,847 editors replying 7393 or 95 per cent declared their communities against tobacco prohibition. Only 3 per cent of the remainder found any considerable sentiment favoring such prohibition.

The questions asked were:

(1) Do you favor the enactment of laws prohibiting the personal use of tobacco by adults?

(2) In your judgment does the general sentiment of your community favor such legislation?

(3) Is the use of tobacco personally objectionable to you?

"In presenting these questions," said Mr. Moree commenting on the results, "we made no argument pro or con, as we wished unbiased replies We did not announce the name of the organization we were representing until afterward. The nature of the replies showed that most editors were entirely in the dark as to whom we represented.

"Checking up the questionnaire returns with the anti tobacco legislation of the last year it is interesting to noet that the highest percentage of replies reporting sentiment favorable to anti-tobacvco laws came from Utah where 42 per cent of the editors thought their public favored such a movement. Utah is the only state to adopt an anti-cigarette law last year and the editors attribued this to the influence of the Mormon Church.

"In Idaho where the Mormon Church is also strong a prohibitory bill was passed but was almost immediately repealed. The editors in that state were 89 per cent againsnt anti-tobacco legislation.

"On the other hand old anti-cigarette laws were repealed by Tennessee Arkansas and Iowa. In these states the editors' estimates of adverse public sentiment were 93, 94 and 95 per cent respectively.

"There has been considerable agitation in other states during the year all of which confirms the judgment of the newspaper editors as to public opposition. A bill introduced in Arizona to prohibit smoking in public dining rooms and other public places was first amended to prohibit consumption in public of peanuts, chewing gum, tea, and coffee and then defeated by the Senate.

"Kansas with 89 per cent seriously considered the repeal of its anti-cigarette law. Last year a petition for a referendum in Oregon failed of sufficient signatures to bring the question to a vote and 95 per cent of the editors declared their public against such legislation.

"In Oklahoma with 94 per cent of noes an anti-cigarette law was killed at the committee."

The net result of the years legislation, therefore, is the gain of one small state by the anti-tobacco people and the loss of three large states.

FOR THE BLIND

One of Most Unique Clubs in World Is In New York

New York, N. Y., May 17.—One of the most unique clubs in the world is that of the fifty elderly blind women, who meet every two weeks at the Lighthouse of the New York Association for the Blind, at 111 East Fifty-ninth street. It has been in existence for fifteen years, and no one of its members, though many are frail, stopped grandmothers, is willing to miss a fortnightly meeting.

Each comes on the arm of a "seeing guide." Often the women arrive, in twos or threes, with a guide in the lead. Some of them have been blind only a few years, due to illness or cataract and they are not accustomed to moving about in darkness. They can never venture out in the streets alone, and, for many of them, the social hour and musical program at the Lighthouse is their only diversion.

Take Miss Mary Marr, for instance Bent and fragile, with silvery white hair, her work roughened hands testify to an active, energetic life About twenty years ago her sight began to fail and she learned that she must eventually become totaally blind. With splendid courage, she set about teaching herself how to be blind. Tying a handkerchief about her eyes, she would fumble about in darkness with her ironing or her other household tasks. Today, although she cannot see the slightest glimmer of light, Miss Marr does all her on work in her little apartment, has one boarder and is known as a model housekeeper.

Miss Jupana Hagedorn, another club member, has a very little sight. just about enough to distinguish daylight from darkness. Since young omanhood she has ben a teacher of the deaf and dumb. Miss Rose Trin galea as for years a piano teacher until her hands became stiff from rheumatism.

Miss Margaret Hemming, although well past the age when most women feel that they must be breadwinners, earns enough money by the sewing furnished her by the lighthouse to pay her daughter with whom she lives, a share of the rent and food. She hems towels, and makes aprons, and is becoming quite adept at making rag rugs. She also makes most of the clothes for her daughter's baby and more than fills the place of a grandmother in the household. Mr. Hemming has had ten children and is blind as the result of an attack of typhoid fever.

These women are all enrolled on the visiting list of the Lighthouse and are known as "home workers." That is, they can not become regular workers in the weaving and sewing rooms for the blind at the Light house, but they are able to earn a little each week by making the articles sold through the Lighthouse.

At the Club meetings, music is the form of entertainment most enjoyed and the program at the last meeting included vocal selecions and violin and piano numbers by blind musicians. Not a face failed to light up at the strains of "Old Black Joe" or "My Old Kentucky Home" The "Blue Danube Waltz" set toes tapping to the quick rhythm, and the Lohengrin "Wedding March" caused their faces to glow with fond memories, as they beat time, with their icee ream spoons to the familiar stirring strain.

To provide better education for blind children, broader and more remunerative occupations for blind adults, and more companionship and cher for the aged blind are the objects of the Committe for Lighthouses for the Blind, in its $2,000,000 campaign. The headquarters of the committee is at the Lighthouse of the New York Association, 111 East 59th Street, hich Miss Winifred Holt "The Lady of the Lighthuse," founded 15 years ago. President Harding, when he received Miss Holt and the two blind girls at the White House, accepted the Honorary Chairmanship of this Committee. Andrew W Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, is Honorary Treasurer; Franklin D. Roosevelt, former Assistant Secretary of the Navy, is chairman; Lewis L. Clarke, President of the American Exchange National Bank, is Treasurer. Contributions may be addressed to Lewis L. Clarke, treasurer, 111 East Fifty-ninth Street, New York City.

IN HIS YOUNG LIFE

A meddlesome old lady came upon a lad lounging on the street curb one noon and stopped to inquire, with suspicion:

"Say, bub, don't you go to school?"

"Yes," was the tart reply, "but only between meals."

Of the sixty-nine principal articles imported by the United States in 1920, wood pulp ranked fifth, with nearly 2 billion pounds, a gain of 43 per cent over the annual amount imported in 1919 and 60 per cent above the 5 year pre war average.

RED CROSS AIDS FAMINE SUFFERERS IN CHINA

Washington. May 17.—As the result of the recent appropriation by the American Red Cross of a second $500,000 for famine relief in China still more highways are to be constructed in the famine area. It is by providing employment in this road building that the Red Cross is enabling tens of thousands of Chinese to obtain food for themselves while the roads will also have permanet value in reducing the inadequacy of transportation means that plays a large part in bringing about famine conditions in China.

An offer has been made through the United International Famine Relief Committee to extend the highway through the province of Chihli providde the authorities will furnish the land without expense to the American Red Cross. A limited amount of construction work will also be made in the province of Shansi. The latter will reach at Fenchofu an important commercial center and the largest of the interior American mission stations. Already a thousand men have been collected for this work but gang after gang have reported that as many as ten per cent could not reach the scene of work because of weakness from hunger.

Because of the fact that they are too far removed from the central sources of grain supply these operations will differ somewhat from those in the Shantung province. Instead of being paid in food rations workmen will be paid on a piece work basis and will buy their grain at contract prices. This again is delivered by the Yellow River from the far western interior.

ASK D. C. WATER

Washington, D. C., May 17.—Senator Swanson of Virginia, is preparing to ask that the Army engineers make a survey of Arlington county, Va., with the idea that the county, or portions of it close to Washington, may be supplied with water from the District of Columbia water supply.

Influential citizens of Arlington county here urged upon Senator Swanson the avisability of having the water system of that part of the county close to Washington linked up with the District water service an dalso the sewerage department. May of the residents of Arlington county are employes of the federal government working in Washington. It was pointed out also that such an arrangement would give the District government an opportunity to control the sewerage from Arlington county. The same delegation requested Senator Swanson to use his good offices to have the treminus of the Capital Traction Company located at the Virginia side of the new Key Bridge now being built across the Potomac River from Georgetown to Rosslyn. Senator Sawnson agreed to do what he could in the matter.

STRANGE CANOES AT JAMES BAY

Cochrane, Ontario, May 17.—Some wonderful canoes appeared mysteriously recently in the James Bay region. They were constructed not of birchbark, but of a strange material the North had never seen. Moose Factory Indians marveled.

The big balloon that carried three of Uncle Sam's naval aviators into the iderness several months ago has since lain collapsed on the spot where it descended. Officials of Moose Factory, one of the earliest posts established on American shores by the Huson Bay Company had given orders to all the Indians who owe highders to all the Indians who owe allegiance to the ancient fur company to leave the great gas bag undisturbed. These orders had been strictly observed, but a band of outlaw Indians, whose home village is 60 miles northwest of Moose Factory, found the balloon. Old Hudson Bay Company's order meant nothing to them. They knew good canoe material when they saw it and straightway with their huting knives they sliced great blanket piecs from the sides of the fallen monster and from the magic fabric fashioned canoes that rode the waves like a thistledown. The air had given the Northland their most marvelous craft.

ALASKA CENSUS FIGURES

The white population of Alaska decreased 23.4 per cent between 1910 and 1920, the census bureau announced yesterday. Of a total population of 54,889 recorded last year: hites totaled 27,883, compared with 36,400 in 1910.

Indians in Alaska, on the basis of the 1920 census, numbered 26,421; negroes, 128; Chinese, 56, Japanese, 312, and Filipinos Hawaiians and Koreans, 99.

P. M. APPOINTMENTS

First Assistant Postmaster General work has sent the following advice to postmasters concerning the Executive Order relative to appointment of postmasters:

"You are advised that it is in no sense the purpose of the Department to undertake to disturb postmasters of the first, second and hird class postoffices, were regularly appointed and confirmed by the Senate, during the term for which they were appointed, except for cause.

"The terms of all postmasters now serving to these three grades who have not been so confirmed have expired. No changes in the status of fourth class postmasters under the Executive Order referred to have been made, except thoe necessary to harmonize the methods of selection for appointment with that of the higher grades.

"The custom of appointing acting postmasters where an emergency is created will be continued. It is expected that the Civil Service Commission will expedite the holding of examinations necessary to the appointment of postmasters where vacancies now exist.

"Preentation of petitions, together with personal recommendations for candidates for appointment as postmasters will be unnecessary." There are no objections to such recommendations after examinations have been held and the eligible list has been built up by the Civil Service Commission and presented to this Department for consideration."

TO REPAIR AND CLEAN NATIONAL GUARD EQUIPMENT

Hereafter the United States Government will clean and repair the uniforms and equipment of the National Guard, through arrangements made with the Chief of the Militia Bureau by the Salvage Branch of the Quartermaster Corps. In each case the salvage repair shops at the station nearest to the National Guard organization concerned will be utilized,

Major General H. L. Rogers, the Quartermaster General of the Army, today gave the various corps area quartermasters supervision of this work and distribution of the National Guard Property requiring repair. Quartermaster Corps officers expect a large saving to the National Guard as well as economy in the preservation of clothing and equipment, to be brought about by this radical innovation.

It is also proposed to furnish laundry service to all students at the coming summer camps for the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. At stations where the new Government laundries are available, this service will be rendered free for all clothing issued by the Army, and at a nominal charge for personal effects of the young men who have signed up for military training this year.

In further line with the general policy of rigid economy laid down by Congress, the Quartermaster Corps has eliminated all unnecessary purchase of clothing for the Army, and will hereafter alter sizes of garments bought for war time use, and still on hand. This will save the taxpayers several hundred thousand dollars annually, especially for underclothing and flannel shirts, which can be economically altered by the salvage repair shops, recently made part of the Quartermaster Corps.

ALCOHOL FOR BOREDOM
(From the London Times)

Dr. H. H. Dale, lecturing to the Society for the Study of Inebriety yesterday afternoon, said that to a nervous patient the sedative and mildly hypnoic value of alcohol might be more important than its food value. But the advisability of prescribing it to the convalescent whose need was ordinary foods was doubtful, except so far as it lessened the tedium and improved the patient's appetite. So far as he knew, alcohol was the only available hypnotic and narcotic substance which had a definitely recognizable food value. Alcohol taken as a preliminary to exposure was definitely dangerous, but it might have a real value in the treatment of one who had been under severe exposure and who had been put to bed with hot bottles which guaranteed a plentiful supply of outside heat.

A BACHELOR'S OPINION

"There is not going to be any more marrying in Indiana," said old Judge Daniels, a crusty old bachelor.

"How is that?" aske dhis nephew, who has just got married.

"See the Legislature has passed a law forbidding weak minded persons to marry, and they are the only ones wh oever think of doing such a thing."—New York American.

Shares of Swift & Company are widely distributed. The map shows the number of shareholders in each state and has been dotted to indicate the proportionate distribution.

Who is Swift & Company?

Swift & Company is not a one man or one family affair. It is a company owned by more than 40,000 people scattered over the face of the globe—forty thousand shareholders with voting powers and a share in the risks and profits of the business.

Most of the forty thousand live here in the United States. But some of them live in France, some in England, others in the Philippines, Hawaii, Alaska.

13,000 of them are women.

Nearly 14,000 of them are employes.

The average individual holdings are small—about 37 shares apiece.

No one person or family owns a majority of the stock.

In fact, it would take 900 of the largest shareholders pooled together to vote 51 per cent of the stock!

These shareholders are the men and women whose money, in the form of capital, makes Swift & Company possible.

They are jealous of the character and reputation of their organization, proud of what it is doing, proud to have a part in supplying to the world such products as Swift's Premium Ham and Bacon, Brookfield Sausage, Silverleaf Brand Pure Lard, Wool Soap, Swift & Company's fresh meats, etc.

The executives of Swift & Company maintain the high standards of these products as an imperative duty not only to the 40,000 shareholders, but to the public.
